Fall Athletes Honored at Annual North High Fete

The grand finale for fall sports at North High was reached last night in the Saxon cafeteria as members of the football and cross country teams met for the annual North High Fall Athletic Banquet.

Tops on the list of many presentations was the announcement of the first winner of the Al Bledsoe Memorial Award for the most inspirational player of the year. Varsity Coach Cliff Graybehl made the presentation to Bob Walker.

Selection of the varsity's most valuable player, for inclusion on the North High Blanket, was announced, the choice being the late Al Bledsoe, Saxon and first string center during the past season.

Jim Whitley, outstanding junior fullback for the North High varsity during the past season, was named as captain of the 1957 Saxon varsity squad.
